

City of Paisley
Minutes of April 3, 2018
Public Forum &
Regular Meeting

- 1.0 Public Forum Mayor Ralph Paull called the public forum to order at 6:03 pm. He introduced Edward Horvath and explained to the Community Members present that Mr. Horvath was here to discuss his proposal for the Vector Control and the Mosquito Festival. Mr. Horvath gave a power point presentation and discussed his ideas for the Festival, talking about sponsors, advertising and needing Community Member Volunteers for assistance. He also discussed his plan for Vector Control, passed out numerous articles on the larvicide and other insecticides he would like to use while discussing their effectiveness and safety. He asked for help in locating standing water and other sources of breeding grounds for mosquitos. He answered numerous questions from the Community Members, one being the cost of his proposal. Mr. Horvath stated the City would pay a onetime fee of $15,000 for a three year contract, 2018-2020. His hope is to make enough money annually through the Festival to pay for the next year's Festival and Vector Control.
