4.0 Public Input

Melissa Walton reminded Council that Council Members Ralph Paull, Robert Davis and Ronne Lindsay terms were up at the end of 2016. Ronne Lindsay will not be able to be reelected to the Council for the next term as she now lives outside Paisley City limits.

5.0 Old Business

5.1 Mosquito Festival Update Tina Aguilar reported to Council that she's talked to Mary Lou Sanchez and she's willing to help with t-shirts again for 2016. She also talked to Tyrell Gandy concerning the vendors and she's willing to help again this year. The map being made by Guy Lion's is not what Tina was wanting and so he's revamping it. The copyrights to the map will be $300. The amount of which has already been donated to the City by Joe and Katherine Barry and the Murphy Ranch for that purpose. Tina feels advertising needs to start sooner rather than later. Ralph Paull moved and Robert Davis 2nd to charge $30 in vendor fees for Friday night, Saturday, and Sunday. MCU. After more discussion concerning event ideas and volunteers needed, Mayor Blair suggested tabling 5.1 till April's Council Meeting so that Tina was able to gather more volunteers to help with the Festival. The thought being if there aren't enough volunteers to handle festivities then planning for them is unnecessary. A special meeting will be held if needed.
